

$100,000 for Man O' War to Race Comrade Abroad.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 5.—Man O' War may race at an English race course if money and the pleadings of many English sportsmen can induce his owner, Samuel D. Riddle of this city, to take the famous stallion there. Last night came word from London that Mr. Riddle had been cabled an offer of $100,000 to bring Man O' War to England for a race next spring with Comrade, the English champion.

Mr. Riddle is on a hunting trip, but Mrs. Riddle to-day said she did not think a purse alone, no matter how big, would be sufficient inducement for Mr. Riddle to send his champion abroad.

American Women Hockey Stars Beaten.

LONDON, Nov. 5.—The team of American women hockey players from Philadelphia and vicinity that recently arrived in England to play women's teams here were beaten at Wimbledon in its first match, played with the Surrey Ladies' team. The score was 5 to 2.

will have had

In the public schools, all over the United States, this is Better Speech Week.

How about a pledge for grownups?

Here's one we heard for boys and girls:

I love the United States of America. I love my country's flag. I love my country's language. I promise:

1. That I will not dishonor my country's speech by leaving off the last syllable of words.
2. That I will say a good American "yes" and "no" in place of an Indian grunt "um-hum" and "muh-um" or a foreign "ya" or "yeh" and "nope."
3. That I will do my best to improve American speech by avoiding loud, rough tones, by enunciating distinctly and by speaking pleasantly, clearly, sincerely.
4. That I will learn to articulate correctly as many words as possible during the year.

Spoken words are like our sort of clothes for men and boys—must be "well-tailored" if they are to hold their shape.

The best of everything men and boys wear.

Sporting goods. Chauffeurs' outfits.

"The Boy Scout movement deserves the support of every person interested in giving our boys added opportunities to become better citizens."

They All Agree

— that the Boy Scout idea is one of the finest things that ever happened to boyhood
— that the Boy Scout movement should be extended to reach every boy in the nation;
— that the Boy Scout program of out-door activities, character building and citizenship training is an indispensable aid to home, school and church in making boys into worthy men;
— that the Boy Scouts of America should be a permanent American institution supported by all the people.

THE SCOUT OATH

Before he becomes a scout, a boy must promise: On my honor I will do my best:

1. To do my duty to God and my country, and to obey the Scout Law;
2. To help other people at all times;
3. To keep myself physically strong, mentally awake, and morally straight.

THE SCOUT LAW

1. A SCOUT IS TRUSTWORTHY.
A scout's honor is to be trusted. If he were to violate his honor by telling a lie, or by cheating, or by not doing exactly a given task, when trusted on his honor, he may be directed to hand over his scout badge.
2. A SCOUT IS LOYAL.
He is loyal to all to whom loyalty is due; his scout leader, his home, and parents and country.
3. A SCOUT IS HELPFUL.
He must be prepared at any time to save life, help injured persons, and share the home duties. He must do at least one good turn to somebody every day.
4. A SCOUT IS FRIENDLY.
He is a friend to all and a brother to every other scout.
5. A SCOUT IS COURTEOUS.
He is polite to all, especially to women, children, old people, and the weak and helpless. He must not take any for being helpful or courteous.

SCOUT LAW (Continued)

6. A SCOUT IS KIND.
He is a friend to animals. He will not kill nor hurt any living creature needlessly, but will strive to save and protect all harmless life.
7. A SCOUT IS OBEDIENT.
He obeys his parents, scoutmaster, patrol leader, and all other duly constituted authorities.
8. A SCOUT IS CHEERFUL.
He smiles whenever he can. His obedience to orders is prompt and cheery. He never shirks nor grumbles at hardships.
9. A SCOUT IS THRIFTY.
He does not wantonly destroy property. He works faithfully, wastes nothing, and makes the best use of his opportunities. He saves his money so that he may pay his own way, be generous to those in need, and helpful to worthy objects. He may work for pay, but must not receive tips for courtesies or good turns.
10. A SCOUT IS BRAVE.
He has the courage to face danger in spite of fear and to stand up for the right against the coaxing of friends or the jeers or threats of enemies, and defeat does not down him.
11. A SCOUT IS CLEAN.
He keeps clean in body and thought, stands for clean speech, clean sport, clean habits, and travels with a clean crowd.
12. A SCOUT IS REVERENT.
He is reverent toward God. He is faithful in his religious duties and respects the convictions of others in matters of custom and religion.

Why All Citizens Of New York Should Contribute To The Support Of The Boy Scouts

Because New York's greatest asset is not its banks and business blocks—but its boys.

Because three hundred thousand New York boys are waiting to be scouts today.

Because Boy Scouting is for your boys and your neighbors' boys; Fifth Avenue's boys and the Bowery's boys; rich boys and poor boys; everybody's boys. It is the great democracy of boyhood!

New York Protestants, Catholics, Jews! The heads of your Faiths want your boys to be scouts. New York Workingmen! The leaders of American labor want your boys to be scouts. New York Business Men! The greatest business leaders want your boys to be scouts.

All New York Citizens! The past, present and future Presidents of your country, the Governor of your State, the Mayor of your City, and other public men want all your boys to be scouts.

But the scout program cannot be effective without organized leadership. Leaders must be recruited and trained. National and city-wide organization is already established, but must be maintained. It is a going concern and requires adequate income.

All your boys will be scouts, and will grow up to clean-cut manhood and intelligent citizenship, if you will each and all contribute according to your means to support the Boy Scouts of America. It is a duty to both your boys and to your country.
